THE B.U.S.I.N.E.S.S. OF FAMILY CHILD CARE. (Indiana's Child Care Collection.) Washington, DC: NAEYC, 1998. VHS, 28 min.

Covers the basics of a family child care business: what to do before getting started; using resources; setting up the environment; including your own family; networking; ensuring excellent care; and the stresses and successes you'll experience.

THE BUSINESS OF FAMILY CHILD CARE WITH TOM COPELAND: HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN YOUR CARING PROFESSION. By Tom Copeland and Jeanna Beker. St. Paul, MN: Redleaf Press, 1996. VHS, 25 min. + viewer's guide.

Tom Copeland, nationally recognized expert on family child care business issues, takes an introductory look at record keeping, taxes, the Food Program, contracts, insurance, and tips on running your new or established family child care business.

CARING AND LEARNING. Diane Trister Dodge, project director. Washington, DC: Teaching Strategies, Inc., 1991. VHS, 23 min. + user's guide.

Four family child care providers of differing backgrounds and means show how to provide developmentally appropriate programs and high-quality care in warm, loving environments. Caregivers arrange activities for children in nine different areas: blocks, toys, art, cooking, books, dramatic play, sand and water play, music and movement, outdoors.

CARING FOR YOUNG CHILDREN. Megan Laforet, producer. Toronto, Ontario, Canada: Dreams and Realities, 1991. VHS, 2 hrs 30 min. + viewer's guide.

Five 30-minute programs from Canadian television look into the workings of family child care and what it takes to be a successful provider: Family day care, is it for you? / Getting started / Partners in child care / Ages and stages / Helping the care giver. Includes an especially good section on dealing with your own family.

FAMILY CHILD CARE HEALTH AND SAFETY. By Abby Shapiro Kendrick & Joanne Gravell. Boston, MA: Mass. Dept. of Public Health, no date. VHS, 19 min. + checklist.

Tape discusses the condition of your home, out of bounds areas, gates and guards, storage, infant/toddler equipment, outdoor play, emergency planning, healthy routines. Tells you dangers to look for and steps to take to make sure your home is safe and healthy. Includes printed health and safety checklist.

THE FAMILY DAY CARE PROVIDER'S CHILDREN AND FAMILY. By Betsy Squibb. Madison, WI: CCIC, 1987. VHS, 90 min.

Squibb talks at the Wisconsin Family Day Care Association Conference about the pros and cons of having one's own children and spouse involved in family day care. She offers various practical hints to help make it all work for everyone.

GATEWAYS TO EARLY LITERACY. Washington, DC: RIFNet, 2003. 4 VHS, 30-min. videocassettes + user's guide + self-study guide + children's book.

This four-video training kit from Reading Is Fundamental explores important ways family child care providers (and others) can enrich and support children's early language and literacy development. The four videos are: Setting the Stage; Conversations; Reading Aloud; Emergent Writing.

THE HIGH/SCOPE CURRICULUM: ITS IMPLEMENTATION IN FAMILY CHILDCARE HOMES. Ypsilanti, MI: High/Scope Press, 1989. VHS, 19 min.

Three family day care homes are visited to show High/Scope teaching strategies, the plan-do-review process, room arrangement, daily routine, and small group time. Caregivers encourage children to think for themselves, solve problems, help each other, learn from self discovery, become more independent, develop a high sense of self-esteem, and find education exciting.

HOW TO START A FAMILY DAY CARE. Produced by Doris Raphael and Douglas M. Weisman. Boston, MA: Day Care Video Programs, 1990. VHS, 48 min. + viewer's guide.

An overview of what is involved in starting and operating a family child care business. Shows a variety of home types and styles of care.
